DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35

U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 1-23 and 49-71 are drawn to "File or database maintenance", classified in class 707, subclass 200.
- II. Claims 24-27, 41-48, 72-75, and 89-96 are drawn to "Version management", classified in class 707, subclass 203.
- III. Claims 28, 29, 76, and 77 drawn to "Privileged access", classified in class 707, subclass 9.
- IV. Claims 30-40 and 78-88 are drawn to "Concurrency (e.g., lock management in shared database)" classified in class 707, subclass 8.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

2. Inventions I and II are related as combination and subcombination. Inventions in this relationship are distinct if it can be shown that (1) the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed for patentability, and (2) that the subcombination has utility by itself or in other combinations (MPEP § 806.05(c)). In the instant case, the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed because it claims a method of managing caches in a system by modifying the data item in a first node and sending the modified data to a second node. The subcombination has separate utility such as a method of managing caches in a system modifying the data item in a first node and determining whether the modified item is a dirty version.

3. Inventions I and III are related as combination and subcombination.

Inventions in this relationship are distinct if it can be shown that (1) the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed for patentability, and (2) that the subcombination has utility by itself or in other combinations (MPEP § 806.05(c)). In the instant case, the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed because it claims a method of managing caches in a system by modifying the data item in a first node and sending the modified data to a second node. The subcombination has separate utility such as a method of managing caches in a system modifying the data item in a first node and determining the ownership rights of the modified item.

4. Inventions I and IV are related as combination and subcombination.

Inventions in this relationship are distinct if it can be shown that (1) the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed for patentability, and (2) that the subcombination has utility by itself or in other combinations (MPEP § 806.05(c)). In the instant case, the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed because it claims a method of managing caches in a system by modifying the data item in a first node and sending the modified data to a second node. The subcombination has separate utility such as a method of managing caches in a system by determining whether the node has an exclusive lock and whether the node is local or global.

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

5. A telephone call was made to Marcel Bingham on 27 October 2004 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made.

6. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

7. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Harold E. Dodds, Jr. whose telephone number is (571)-272-4110. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday - Friday 8:00 - 4:30.

If attempts to reach the examiner by telephone are unsuccessful, the examiner's supervisor, John E. Breene can be reached on (571)-272-4107. The
